

Oysters
and
Les Fruits de Mer

Winter - Spring

● not available

Oysters by species and locale

Crassostrea gigas - the Pacific oyster

Nootka Sound (British Columbia)	.
Effingham Inlet (British Columbia)	.
Kusshi (British Columbia)	.
Calm Cove (Washington)	.
Cranberry Creek (Washington)	.
Steamboat (Washington)	.
Chelsea Gem (Washington)	.
Pearl Point (Oregon)	.
Pacific Hog Island (Tomales Bay)	.
Marin Miyagi (Tomales Bay)	.
Drake's Bay (Point Reyes)	.

Crassostrea sikamea - a Japanese native revived in the Northwest

Eld Inlet Kumamoto (Washington)	.
Sand Isle Kumamoto (Humboldt Bay)	.
Humboldt Kumamoto (Humboldt Bay)	.
Hog Island Kumamoto (Tomales Bay)	.

Crassostrea virginica - the Eastern oyster

Malpeque (Prince Edward Island)	.
Cooke's Cocktail (Prince Edward Island)	.
Island Creek (Massachusetts)	.
Wellfleet (Massachusetts)	.
Hog Island "Atlantic" (Tomales Bay)	.

Ostrea conchaphila - the tiny Pacific oyster

Totten Inlet Olympia (Washington)	.
-----------------------------------	---

Clams

Littleneck (Cape Cod)	.
Manila (Washington)	.
Periwinkles 8 pieces (New England)	.
White shrimp (Atlantic Coast)	.
Dungeness crab quarter, half, or whole	.

Market Price

